Galiène Cohu
Membre de la CPDP

The background of the slide features a large, semi-transparent blue overlay. Within this overlay, there are several white silhouettes of people of various ages and heights standing together, representing a diverse group. The silhouettes are positioned behind the text.

Yves Desrousseaux
Membre de la CPDP

The background of the slide features a blue-tinted image of a group of people standing together, rendered as white silhouettes. The group consists of approximately ten individuals of various ages and heights, arranged in a loose cluster. The overall aesthetic is professional and community-oriented.
